

A PHOTOGRAPHIC NATURAL HISTORY OF AQUATIC INSECTS

a Presentation by David H. Funk,
Entomologist,
Stroud Water
Research Center

Thursday
November 7, 2002
7:30 p.m.

(ECWA
Annual Meeting
at 7:00 p.m.)

Alison Theater
in the Alison Building at Jenners Pond
2000 Greenbriar Lane, West Grove, Pennsylvania

David Funk has been an entomologist at Stroud Water Research Center for 25 years. His specialties are the taxonomy, genetics, ecology and behavior of aquatic insects. He is a photographer whose photos have been published in magazines such as Ranger Rick, Natural History, BBC Wildlife, Nature, and Scientific American.

sponsored by:
The Elk Creeks Watershed Association with help from the
PA Department of Environmental Protection
Stroud Water Research Center,
and Jenners Pond

Wheelchair Accessible
No Charge (Donations Accepted)

P.O. Box 111, Oxford, PA 19363
610 998.9900
www.elkwatershed.org
ecwa@elkwatershed.org